NO LACK OF WORRIES

THE SALISBURY MINISTRY HAS MANY PROBLEMS TO SOLVE.

FRENCH ENTERPRISE IN AFRICA

Alleged Encrossment on British Camitory-Fatlure of British Campaign in India-Peary Lionizedat Windsor-Liberal Platform

Copyright, 1897, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, December 11 .- Four Cabinet councils in a week are calculated to arouse comment, but it must be admitted that the Marquis of Salisbury and his colleagues have a multiplicity of matters more or less urgently calling for a settlement. With France trying to filch silces of African territory which Great Britain is in the habit of calling her own, and Germany loosening the "cinch" Albion has always claimed to have in China, while Great Britain herself is trying to grab a little more country at various other points, and with the preparation for the executive programme, the ministry has no lack of worries.

Gazette made on Wednesday last, "authoritatively," that the British Government does not expect any further trouble with France regarding the Upper Nile regions, France agreeing to accept the situation, is unconfirmed and probably unfounded, as there is no lack of evidence that France is deliberately pursuing the task of seizing the upper waters of the Nile, above Khartoum, thus cutting the British line of communication between Cape Town and Suez, and the owerful Colonial party in France threatens to upset the Meline Cabinet, should it recede from this enterprise. FAILURE IN INDIA.

All the forces of General Bir William Lockhart, the British commander on the Indian frontier, have been withdrawn to the Bara Valley for the winter. Thus, the largest and best-equipped force ever assembled in India has failed, and the whole work will have to be repeated in the spring.

About 1,400 officers and men killed or About 1,40 officers and men killed or wounded, 35,000,000 of rupees spent in loss, and British prestige weakened on the frontier, are the debits against which a few mud houses and sangers blown up, and probably several thousand natives killed, are the only apparent credits. Rumors, too precise to be guess-work, are current to the effect that the Earl of digin, early next year, will retire from Eigin, early next year, will retire from the Vice-Royalty of India, and be succeeded by Lord George Hamilton, whose Indian secretaryship will be filled by Lord Lansdowne, the present Secretary of State for War. This would be a good party move, as it would enable the Marquis of Salisbury to place at the head of the War Office a skilled man of business, who would satisfy the tax-payers as well as the army, and materially smooth the path of the intended proposals for military reform.

smooth the path of the intended proposals for military reform.

It is intimated that Joseph Chamberlain may be transferred from the Colonial to the War Office, his place being given as a sop to the Marquis of Londonderry, whose "kicking" qualities are not appreciated by the Ministry,

PEARY A HERO.

Lieutenant R. E. Peary, the American explorer, has taken the town by storm, though he arrived here unheralded. The newspapers, geographers, and scientists are at his disposal. As a leading geo-grapher said to a representative of the Associated Press: "Lieutenant Peary has won all our hearts by his modesty, cour-tesy, and learning. We put him on the same plane as Dr. Nansen, and have the utmost confidence in his plans."
On Friday afternoon Colonel Hay had a long conference with the Marquis of a long conference with the Marquis of Sallsbury at the Foreign Office, on the subject of the Bering Sea. The interview was amicable on both sides, but nothing definite was arrived at. Later in the afternoon Colonel and Mrs

Hay proceeded to Windsor, where they received special marks of attention. The United States Ambassador and his wife dined at the Queen's table, Colonel Hay sitting next to her Majesty. She was most kind and cordial, the conversation lasting an hour. After dinner, the Queen conversed with Mrs. Hay in the same cordial manner.

NEW LIBERAL PLATFORM.

The National Liberal Federation at its annual meeting at Derby on Tuesday last constructed a new platform, which, it is hoped, will be broad enough to hold all the factions. It includes abolition of the peers' rights of veto, woman suffrage. the payment of members of the House of Commons, the enfranchisement of paupers, and the defraying of election expenses from public funds.

John Morley has "kicked" at the plat form. He says he has "doffed his coat and waistcoat in behalf of home rule," and cannot spare any more apparel for the purpose of fighting for the abolition of the House of Lords.

Lodge Officers Elected-A Pleasant
